Discover the AFRICA BUILD Portal, a professional social network for supporting collaborative links between health researchers in Africa. This free and open portal provides access to a wide variety of informatics tools for health training and research. It can also be used to follow massive open online courses \(or MOOCs\), to find jobs or funding grants, to keep up to date with research news, and to establish professional connections. The project received financial support through the EU's Seventh Framework Programme \(FP7-ICT\) from August 2011 to August 2014.
